Current Series: Taking Ground

Sometimes, especially in the Summer months, we as Christians can be tempted to coast. We want to put our lives on cruise control and relax. But the Holy Spirit never leads us to complacency. Instead, he is constantly looking to take new ground in the battle against sin and the battle to unite our hearts more fully to God. In this series, we will walk through two passages in Galatians that lead us to yield to the Spirit as he seeks to take new ground in our lives.
