1. Pray for those going out this summer on our Go Teams. Pray that they would trust God with every detail of their preparation.
2. Pray for everyone in this church - that we would grow in our ability to trust God and be a cheerful giver.

Current Series: Cheerful Giving

The New Testament call to generosity is not based on forced and begrudging obedience. Instead it is based on a joyful outpouring from our hearts. In this message on giving, we will explore how the gospel of Jesus leads us to be eager and cheerful in our giving.

Cheerful Giving

Gary Keith, Lead Pastor

2 Corinthians 9:6-11 • June 9, 2019

Christian giving comes from a place of enjoyment not a place of obligation

What does it take to be a cheerful giver?

1. Cheerful giving starts with a _____ to trust God with our financial future.

⁶ Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2. Cheerful giving acts on our _____ of God's promise to meet our needs.

⁸ And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

⁹ As it is written: "They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever."

3. Cheerful giving leads to an _____ life.

¹⁰ Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. ¹¹ You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

What is the biggest obstacle to you giving more cheerfully and generously than you currently do?

When it comes to cheerful giving how will you overcome that obstacle and live differently?
