Current Series: In This House

1 Timothy is a letter that is written by the apostle Paul to Timothy, who Paul calls, "My true son in the faith." It is a letter from a father to a son, in the sense that Paul the apostle writes to Timothy, the pastor to instruct, advise, and inspire him to fulfill his calling before God. As we see a young man in the faith receive this instruction, we see a picture of what it means to dedicate our lives to the calling God has placed on each of us.

Most scholars believe that the key verses of 1 Timothy are in chapter 3, verses 14-15. They say, "Although I hope to come to you soon, I am writing you these instructions so that, if I am delayed, you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth." At the center of this letter is a message about how people are meant to conduct themselves in the church of Jesus Christ.

We Revel in Grace

In This House

Dan Franklin, Teaching Pastor

1 Timothy 1:12-17 • June 30, 2019

We revel in grace because salvation is _____ ,
not _____ .

We are saved by Christ's _____ .

¹² I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me trustworthy, appointing me to his service. ¹³ Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief. ¹⁴ The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

We are saved through Christ's _____ .

¹⁵ Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst. ¹⁶ But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his immense patience as an example for those who would believe in him and receive eternal life. ¹⁷ Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
