

The Only Joy

Series: The Only

Dan Franklin, Teaching Pastor

John 16:19-24 | December 17, 2017

Lasting joy is based on the _____

of our _____.

Joy overcomes _____.

¹⁹ Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, "Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me'?" ²⁰ Very truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.

Joy overcomes _____.

²¹ A woman giving birth to a child has pain because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world.

Joy overcomes _____.

²² So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.

Joy overcomes _____.

²³ In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. ²⁴ Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete.

Pray

Pray for God to work through our upcoming Christmas Eve services, bringing people into closer connection with Jesus.

Pray for God to open your eyes to ways that you are seeking joy in your temporary circumstances, and to guide you in finding your joy in Jesus.

Year-End Giving

This has been an incredible year for LBF Church. We've seen lives changed, marriages healed, addictions ended, and joy returned to the hopeless. We've seen people hold fast to faith in difficult circumstances. Your generosity helps make all of this possible. Remember LBF Church when you plan your giving this month, and make sure to send your year-end giving by December 31 to be counted for 2017. Give online at www.lbf.church/give
